Eleftheria (Freedom) Indoor Hall

The Eleftheria Indoor Hall is an up to date sports facility adjacent to the Makarios Stadium and the Leukotheo Stadium in Engkomi. It is the home ground of the Cyprus National Basketball team and is the largest indoor sports arena on the island.

The Hall is used primarily for basketball matches but it can also accommodate: badminton, gymnastics, karate, taekwondo, volleyball, squash, judo and ping pong events. It has hosted several important basketball meets and other athletic competitions, such as the Saporta European Cup Final in 1997 between Real Madrid and Verona and the FIBA All Star Game in 2005. The Hall is the permanent venue for the annual Cyprus Basketball Cup Finals.

Lefkosia Public Swimming Pool

The Lefkosia Public Swimming Pool meets Olympic standards at 21 x 50m with eight lanes and a separate heated diving pool (21 x 23m) with concrete diving platforms for 1, 3, 6, 8 and 10 metres. The pool has been used for training by the Greece and Cyprus national teams, in addition to hosting international events such as the Balkan Games.

Particular attention is paid to the hygiene and cleanliness of the pool's water. It is checked a minimum of three times per day by the Lefkosia Health Services Department. The pool is staffed by three lifeguards and four security guards who ensure that the correct clothing and hygiene regulations are implemented at all times.

Lefkosia Multipurpose Indoor Hall

The Hall opened in March 2005 and is located in the area of Makarios Stadium. It was designed and constructed in accordance with the strictest international sporting guidelines. It is the most comprehensive training facility for team and individual sports in Lefkosia and includes a hall for rhythmic and display gymnastics, a multipurpose sports hall with three training units suited to basketball, handball and volleyball.

It also houses a table tennis hall with all necessary facilities to host games at an international level as well as additional badminton training units.

There is also an indoor track field with a 150m running lane and full administrative and healthcare facilities that support the Lefkosia Sports Research Centre.
